SSR SUICIDE CASE

Bihar netas praise CM, flay Shiv Sena

Recommendation for a CBI probe strikes a chord with all leaders

LAW KUMAR MISHRA

Until Tuesday morning, it was Bihar Police versus Maharashtra Police in the Sushant Singh Rajput (SSR) suicide probe case. The minute Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar announced that the state has recommended a CBI probe to the Union Home Ministry through the state home secretary, political leaders, cutting across party lines, started praising the CM and slammed Shiv Sena for its comments.

Union Power Minister Raj Kumar Singh, a former union home secretary, in a statement said, "Now the truth will come out in the open. Nitish Kumar has taken the right decision."

Nishikant Dubey, a BJP MP, appreciated the recommendation for a CBI probe, saying the underworld's huge investment in Bollywood should be exposed. Their nexus between the Bollywood and underworld mafia never allowed North Indians to shine in the tinsel town, he alleged. Health Minister Bihar Mangal Pandey said Nitish Kumar has kept in mind the feelings of the people of Bihar by recommending to hand over the investigation to the CBI. Now, the Mumbai police would also face the music, he hoped.

Rajiv Ranjan Prasad, JDU spokesman, attacked Shiv Sena spokesperson Sanjay Raut for his statement that the CBI probe was aimed at the Bihar Assembly election. "Raut has crossed the limits of decency by making a personal attack on Nitish Kumar. His charge is, in fact, meant to cover the lapses of Mumbai police," Prasad said and added that Sena should not politicise the death of a brilliant film star from Bihar and help facilitate a free and fair investigation by the CBI. RJD leaders, too, welcomed the CM's decision. In a state-

Congress slams Nitish for sending cops to Mumbai

The Congress on Tuesday slammed Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar for sending the Bihar Police to probe into the death of Bollywood actor Sushant Singh Rajput, asserting that his police cannot forcibly interfere in the boundaries of other state.

In reply to a question at his press conference in Jaisalmer, he said the Constitution and the law says the law and order situation is the responsibility of the concerned state. Asking Kumar to better read the Constitution instead of claiming the Maharashtra government is not cooperating, he said anarchy will prevail if the police of one states start probing cases in the territory of other

Tongue in cheek

Corona and cop!

The coronavirus has become a creepy demon every-L one has bowed to. The cops in a police station in Bhopal were on pins and needles after a thief tested positive for Covid-19. All the cops at the police station gave their swab samples for testing.

Nevertheless, before the report came, the station to be tasteless to him. Through internet, he came to know those afflicted with the coronavirus generally lose their sense of taste and smell. He was so disappointed that he wanted to keep away from the Terhwi (a ritual performed on the 13th day after the death of a Hindu) of a colleague's brother. He unwillingly went there, though. When he consumed the food served on the occasion, he found everything normal. At night, when he reached home, his wife told him the cook had forgotten to add salt to the fare she had made the other day. Such is the terror of corona demon!

Follow norms

Unlocking in the city has begun in a fluid situation. The number of positive cases has shot up, and it may go up further. Yet the government cannot afford another lockdown to save the livelihoods of thousands of people. Many residents have already begun to find themselves sinking fast in financial quicksand. Many have lost their jobs. Keeping this in mind, Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has said there will be no more lockdowns. Instead, he has emphasised on the need to follow the corona-related precautions to quell the virus. The government is worried because of the rise in number of positive cases in the state capital. Both lives and livelihoods are at stake. Saving both has become a problem. Bhopalis, however, barely follow any rules. Many of them avoid sporting mask, and throw the social-distancing norms to the wind.

Red buses needed

m ed}$ buses, the backbone of the city's transport system, are not clanging back and forth. The administration does not want to take risk by allowing those buses. The officials fear once the buses are run people will spread further. But as the unlocking has begun and as the residents have started going to their places of work, allowing red buses has become a necessity. The sight of people clinging to a red bus has become a thing of the past. Now that the virus has taken each part of Bhopal into its clench, it is not known whether those buses will be seen anytime soon.

College and varsity examination through ordinance?

BHOPAL: The Higher Education Department is in a fix and finding ways to implement the announcement made by CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan for providing general promotions to students of first and second year in undergraduate course and first and second semester in the postgraduate course.

Sources in the department of higher education (DHE) say that the University Examination Act 1973 does not have any provision for the general promotion therefore it is imperative to change the law. 'Considering that the monsoon session of state assembly was cancelled due to corona pandemic, it is highly unlikely that it may be convened only to amend the University Examination Act,' said a senior official of the department. Conducting exams too is a risky affair when corona cases are on the rise. Therefore CM's announcement related to general promotion needs to be implemented but it is impossible without amending the Act.

His name was missing from list of corona positive when he was tested positive.

Similarly, names of minister Arvind Bhadauria's wife and son who are also undergoing medical treatment in Chirayu Hospital, appeared in main list of corona positive list. BJP organisational secretary Ashutosh Tiwari's name has been shown in main list of corona positives instead of "repeat positive." This is not first time when, corona positive list shows anomalies. Earlier too, names of several corona patients repeatedly appeared in main list of corona patients instead of "repeat positive". As per health department, this happens just because tests are conducted by different agencies. Under

Everything left to people, says Mishra, Cong criticises

OUR STAFF REPORTER

Home Minister has given a controversial statement at a time when the situation arising out of the coronavirus pandemic has worsened in the state capital. t a press conference, Mishra said, "The government is doing whatever it can to check the virus, but now, everything depends on people."

He urged the people to take precautions, because the lockdown cannot go on for long.

The lockdown halts economic activities, so the responsibility to fight the coronavirus rests on people, he said.

There are more than 2,400 active patients in Bhopal, and unlocking has begun after the ten days. Mishra's statement indicates that if people do not take follow the corona-related precautions, the number of patients will go up in coming days, and the government will not be responsible for it.

Before Mishra, the health department had already said it cannot be estimated how many patients would increase in coming days.

Reacting to Mishra's statement, chairman of Congress's media committee, Jitu Patwari, said the government made a correct statement about corona for the first time. According to Patwari, the Congress already said that the government had left the people to fend for themselves at the time of corona.

BHOPAL BOYS CRACK UPSC EXAM, SAY...

'Coaching is the mantra of the past'

The UPSC 2019 result declared on Tuesday saw two talents from Bhopal securing rank in top 20. Abhishek Saraf is ranked eighth and Anmol Jain 14th. Both have lots in common. Both studied in Campion School and are IITians. Abhishek did his engineering from IIT Kanpur while Anmol from IIT Delhi. Both believe in hard work, discipline and self study. With specific guidance they cracked the most prestigious exams on

DIDN'T WASTE TIME, SAYS ABHISHEK

I studies in Campion School till class 10. My father was an architect, whom I lost in childhood. I was determined to become an engineer and prepared for it, cracked trance and got admission in IIT Kanpur. I did civil engineering from there. Till then, I used to think engineering and specifically civil engineering as the best trait in the world. In IIT Kanpur, I learnt a lot. IIT Kanpur is known for research oriented studies and I read a lot. The campus had a great impact on my approach and developed a research bent of mind.

After completing my engineering degree I appeared for Indian Engineering Services (IES) in 2013 and secured 6th rank but started preparing for the UPSC. I started working with the railways. Working with railways changed my way of thinking and I realised engineering was not the only best trait in the world and realised importance of other things as well. Then I understood that all disciplines have equal role to play and no one is superior. This was my fourth attempt with the UPSC. Even earlier I used to reach till interview round where I realised that I need to do more. During my preparation I used to study for about 12 hours but I used to watch movies,

SELF STUDY SANS COACHING: ANMOL

My father and mother both are doctors but none of them ever tried to coerce me and my brother Akshay to become doctors. Thanks to them. I studied in Bharat Jyoti School in Mandla as my father Dr Sanjay Jain was posted there. Then he was transferred to Bhopal and I got admission in Campion School. I used to study on my own and was fortunate enough to get good teachers and schools who also motivated me for self study and self evaluation. The result of self studies was that I cracked engineering exam and got admission in IIT Delhi where completed my engineering in textiles. Then I started preparation for the UPSC exams and kept focus on civil services. I also got a job but my focus remained on the UPSC studies. I was successful in my fifth attempt. My first attempt taught me basic lessons on how to crack the UPSC and from my second to fourth attempts; I used to clear my written main exams but could not go through the interview round. My family members told me about Jito Administrative Training Foundation in Delhi-a social organization run by Jains for society members. Last year I went there for a while to take tips on cracking the interview. Self evaluation and self confidence are keys to success. I give all the credit to my parents who motivated me and never to lose hope.

हजार से अधिक इलाकों में पहुंचा संक्रमण- दुवे ने आरोप लगाया कि जिला एवं स्वास्थ्य प्रशासन की लगातार लापरवाही से इंदौर में कोरोना तेजी से फेल रहा है लेकिन जिम्मेदार अधिकारी आम जनता पर दोषारोपण कर रहे हैं। संयोजक अजय दुवे ने इंदौर के 1066 इलाकों की सूची जारी की है, जिसमें ए बी और सी श्रेणी के आधार पर शहर के इलाक को चिन्हित किया गया है। दुबे ने कहा कि जिला प्रशासन ने मई, जून एवं जुलाई माह में कोरोना संक्रमितों के रहवासी क्षेत्रों की जानकारियां सार्वजनिक नहीं की. उस वजह से भी कोरोना मयानक तरीके से फैला और आज कम्यूनिटी
